Corinoma

Foreword

Since our school plays such an important part in the lives of students, we have chosen Robert Frost's famous poem "The Road Not Taken" as the theme of the 1965 CORINOMA. Just as Frost had to make a momentous choice, every student will have to make numerous weighty decisions in his or her lifetime. Because of the advantages afforded by modern facilities and outstanding faculty members, our school has helped the student -- whether consciously or subconsciously -- to make decisions which, in most cases, will be most beneficial to himself and to his society.

Only through the continuation of our school's fine direction can enough responsible citizens be found who are capable of making decisions befitting a democracy. Thus, throughout the CORINOMA, we have attempted to give a well-rounded view of all aspects of school life, which might play a part -- no matter how small -- in producing the best type of person.

The Road Not Taken by Robert Frost

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I --
I took the one less traveled by
And that has made all the difference.

Life at A-C . . .

The first day . . .

. . . the office on a busy morning.
Yes, life is pretty routine. Except for

. . . an occasional stick in the "mud" . . .

. . . and Jake!

Dedication

To a skillful, diligent class advisor, outstanding basketball coach, efficient stage crew director, and devoted industrial arts teacher, we express our appreciation and thanks for a job well done.

Yet more than this we acknowledge an unfailing friend whose clever wit and sportsmanlike attitude provides us with many memories. For all this -- and more -- we dedicate to you, Mr. Etchberger, this volume of the Corinoma.

"Four score and seven years ago . . ."

"Was ist los?"

"I'm just waiting for a trolley to come around that corner."

"But I told you, I'd rather do it myself."

School Board Looks to the Future

The Annville-Cleona School Authority met in February to sign an agreement which provided funds for the expansion of the cafeteria, library, gymnasium, and office facilities and new classrooms.

Mr. Merle Keim, our supervising principal, coordinates the activities of the high school and the elementary schools in our school district.

Mr. Richard Gingrich, our high school principal is in charge of the administrative duties in the high school.

Mr. Robert Snyder, our assistant principal, makes the schedules for the school, teaches driver education, advises hall patrol, and coaches our baseball team.

At this point in the CORINOMA we wish to pause for a moment to pay tribute to a most deserving individual, Mr. Henry Hollinger, who is retiring at the end of this school term.

During his teaching career of forty-two years, twenty-nine of which were spent at Annville, Mr. Hollinger taught both mathematics and English; in addition he willingly gave of his time to serve in rather unglamorous, but indispensable positions such as: ticket manager, cafeteria proctor, and track official. For his outstanding service,

Class of 1965

Collegiate Quartet

First teaching position.

he was honored as teacher of the year for 1964-1965 -- and was given a plaque by the PSEA to commemorate the award.

Because of his seemingly inexhaustible energy which belies his true age, it seems almost an injustice to see Mr. Hollinger leave his profession; however, as he enters retirement, the CORINOMA staff; representing the student body, administration, faculty, and community; wishes him and his loved ones many wonderful years of happiness.

"What do you mean I failed?"

As the Class of 1965 leaves A-CHS the seniors take with them a part of all the people they have known. The many dedicated teachers and administrators have expanded the students' world of knowledge and understanding far beyond the boundaries of ignorance. These graduates now stand prepared for their most difficult task -- that of becoming a good citizen of not only their nation but also their world.

Class president Rick Beard receives his diploma from principal Mr. Richard Gingrich.

The seniors proceed to the stage for the last time.

The graduates march from the stage taking with them the memories of twelve years.

These faces reflect the success of Field Day.

These senior flutists perform admirably at the spring band concert.

Twenty-one senior boys with nothing to do fill the phone booth. That escapade brought humor to the seniors' final hours.

Look at all that enthusiasm!

These girls seem to be pondering some great problem.

Doesn't he resemble a hardworking senior?

An unusual view of the senior girls!

Carl and Ken are going on a trip.

Helen is our female Little Jack Horner.

Our basketball band is always on the scene

Look how nervous these players are just before curtain time.

Mother never made ice cream like this!

Underclassmen Have Fun

King Greg and Queen Cathy should be happy!

Watch out! It's halftime.

Watch out, Santa Claus! There's a spy.

You're on Candid Camera, too, Bonnie.

This group of important people has a big conference.

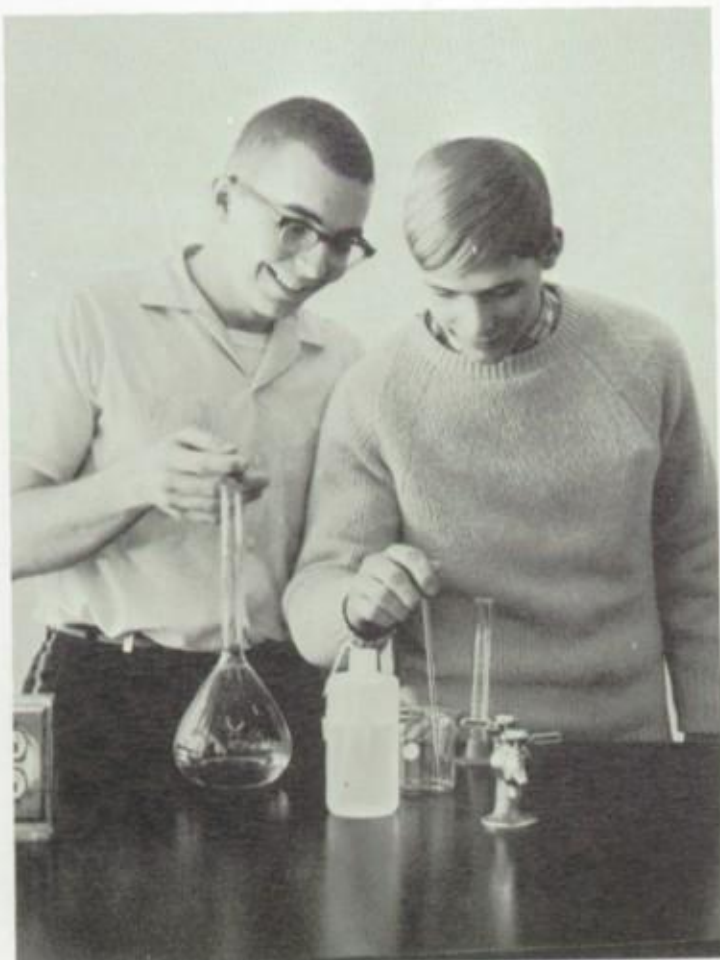

Dancing is such a nice way to pass an evening.

Some juniors are learning proper laboratory methods.

Many couples enjoyed the new fall dance, the Fall Fantasy.

Clubs and Activities

Student Council ROW 1: J. Gingrich, C. Gingrich, J. Colvin, D. Martin, F. Sattazahn, D. Achenbach, S. Wildasin. ROW 2: Miss Witmeyer, Advisor; G. Hitz, M. Fry, S. Peters, J. Sollenberger, O. Wethington, C. Mease, C. Rohland. Missing -- K. Creamer.

"Student Council Serves School in Many Ways"

The senior high Student Council has both government and service obligations within the school. This organization promotes student-faculty relations as well as assisting with assembly programs, publishing a student handbook, encouraging social functions and broadcasting daily announcements.

"What's on the agenda for today, Cathy?"

"Is there an empty space?" John surveys the lot as parking lot chairman.

"Attention please for your 8:15 announcements!"
Don and Olin faithfully announce the day's activities.

"Soft drink anyone?" Susie, Don, Sally, and Miss Witmeyer try out a new cooling device for the spirited basketball fans.

Fall Fantasy Court:

"Fall Fantasy is Big Success."

As a service to the student body the Student Council sponsors the annual Fall Fantasy Dance. The high point of this dance is the crowning of the King and Queen and elected members of each class.

Dale and Cathy reign as Fall Fantasy King and Queen.

Brenda and Vic found that "When there's a will, there's a way."

*“Castle in the Clouds”
Provides
Romantic Atmosphere*

The major project of the junior class is to sponsor a Junior-Senior Prom. As this year's theme the class chose "Castle In The Clouds." Because of diligent work, the Prom was a success.

Pictured on this page are the seven seniors who made tremendous contributions to a great team effort. Their spirit, coupled with the fine coaching of Mr. Gerber, were responsible for making a sport, ordinarily lacking spectator appeal, popular to the student body of ACHS.

Although it did not win the County championship, this year's team, despite hampering injuries to key personnel, displayed the same desire and spirit that has characterized the Annville-Cleona teams of the past, while fashioning a 10-2 league record and a 14-5 record overall. The squad's record can be attributed to the fine play of the six departing seniors -- pictured on the next page. Without their high morale and dedication, the 1964-1965 season would have been a long one indeed.

Baseball Team

Despite an early season drought of victories, the baseball team showed great improvement during the last half of the season. It is notable that although this year's team might not have been the best in the won-lost column, it took second place to none in possessing good sportsmanship and high team morale.

Track Team Continues

Along with an undefeated record in dual and triangular meets, the A-C track team did well in invitational and special meets. The thinclads, however, reached their greatest heights in the Lebanon Relays and the Lebanon County Meet. In the former, the Little Dutchmen accomplished an almost insurmountable task by winning both the county and open-class competitions. Three weeks later, our cindermen returned to the same Lebanon Stadium to completely overwhelm their county opponents.

In the District Meet, only Columbia's fine performance relegated A-C to second place. Of the State qualifiers, Bryan Kruger turned in our only victory, although the other participants performed credibly.

Jimmie wins again.

"Junior High Track Team Wins County"

Seventh Grade
440 relay team

The Junior High Track Team capped a fine season by winning the County Championship. Throughout the year Terry Waltz led the team with his outstanding performances in the dashes and the broad jump. In the process Terry set two new records while teammates, Mike Zeck and Greg Colvin, also made their marks in the record book. In addition the 880 relay team set a new standard.

40-Love!

As we leave A-CHS and go our different ways, we will meet obstacles which will make our road bleak and dreary.

The Seniors Near the End of Their Road

However, when we do become despondent, a sense of humor and a smile help us to go on.

Other times sheer determination forces us to go on.

At times loneliness disappears and we find ourselves in the spotlight.

Individual toil is the greatest stepping stone to universal prosperity.

We find ourselves in odd situations doing the unexpected.

Regardless of the road we traveled, we finally find reward for our endeavors.

Alma Mater

We raise our voices to the sky
In deep humility,
For all that we have come to know --
The truth that sets man free.

We dare not look behind us;
The future's ours to possess.
For what we are, we owe to thee,
Our dear old A-CHS.
